

Stolen and Otherwise

Honest labor is said to be a good remedy for bad luck.

San Juan county is making arrangements to hold a big county fair next fall.

The New Mexican predicts that the Sunday laws will soon be enforced in Albuquerque.

The aspect of lawlessness in Chicago is terrifying. That gigantic city contains uncomputed possibilities for horror.

Santa Fe will build a modern public school house and get ready to be the up to date capital of the state of New Mexico.

The next Epworth League convention will be held in Denver, and the Colorado delegates to the Detroit meeting have promised that an auditorium to seat 10,000 people will be built for the use of the leaguers.

Mexico knows how to punish some lovers for indiscretions, forcing them to wed and to live together, which, often, is making punishment fit the crime.

In the death of Chief Arthur of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, organized labor has lost one of the most consistent and powerful friends it has ever had.

Chicago waiters are up against the dilemma of admitting Chinese to their union or letting the chop-suey joints go un-unionized. Both alternatives are equally unthinkable, and they would like suggestions.

The press of the entire country devoted columns previous to July 4th in a strong effort to curb the nonsensical methods which have prevailed for years to show the patriotism of the people, but in spite of arguments and warning the list of dead and maimed is larger this year than ever before. The fool killer must have taken a day off.

When a law is adopted in Mexico it is to be obeyed; if the law says saloons must close at 9 o'clock it does not mean that the back door shall remain open after that hour. Indeed, if Juarez is not allowed to "do business" after 9 o'clock, that town is in a bad way.

Even the "old inhabitant" cannot remember a more favorable climatic year than this. There were good rains during the winter, more in the early spring and now the regular season is right up to standard. Good crops, fine ranges and prosperous times to the people of Grant county are the inevitable results. —Silver City Independent.

San Juan has not its promised railroad, nor steel works as yet but its enterprising people in those parts keep right on making the county one of the best in New Mexico. A company is at work at present taking out a canal from the Piedra river to irrigate a large section of country between that river and the Pina. While considerable of this tract lies in Colorado, yet a large portion to be covered by the ditch lies in San Juan county. It is fine land and several prosperous settlements will be built on it. —Santa Fe New Mexican.

Some time ago an old negro was being examined as a witness by a young lawyer of his race in a murder trial in one of the southern states. The colored legal light, who was for the defense and was trying to show want of motive for the commission of the crime, asked the witness this question: "Was not the relationship existing between the deceased and the prisoner on such an amicable basis as to demonstrate incontrovertibly an utter absence of animus on the part of the latter for the perpetration of the offense charged?" "Go way f' om yer nigger," replied the old man; "youse trying ter swasinate on de nocturnal diaphragm, ain't you?"

Melons from Del Rio

This morning the Wells Fargo express company handled into El Paso on No. 9 a number of crates of cantaloupes from Del Rio for the local market. Last year big money was made by the truck farmers at Indio and Yuma by raising fantaloupes on the desert lands and the same applies this year at these places as well as at Mesa. The venture proved such a success in Arizona that a large quantity of the seed of the cantaloupes raised there was sent to Del Rio to be tried, with the result that a very fine product was raised, which is bringing a good price in the eastern markets and the demand is heavier than the supply. It is said that the raisers of the cantaloupes at Del Rio make $3 on every case handled after all expenses are paid. This only goes to show what can be done in the Rio Grande valley.

Catarrah of the Stomach.

When the stomach is over loaded; when food is taken into it that fails to digest; it decays and inflames the mucous membrane, exposing the nerves and causing the nerves to secrete mucus, instead of the natural juices of digestion. This is called catarrah of the stomach. For years I suffered with catarrah of the stomach, caused by indigestion. Doctors and medicine failed to benefit me until I used Kodol Dyspepsy Cure;

Lynching is Murder.

Justice Brewer of the United States supreme court says that any man who participates in a lynching is a murderer and can be tried and hanged as such precisely as if he alone had committed the crime. And this reminder is timely. A good many persons in the country seem to need it.

The increasing frequency of this offense, and the resultant crimes of disorder, seem to point to one moral—the contagion that resides in evil. No wholesome lesson can be learned from such a deplorable event as that at Evansville which ignores the responsibility of a mob in like degree with the responsibility of the individuals composing it.

Every member of a crowd of lynchers who burn a negro at the stake is a murderer. That is the long and short of it. It is a lie to speak of the mass; its units are cowardly assassins who are to be dealt with only as Napoleon dealt with the mob that terrorized Paris. A cumulative crime is appropriately one effectively avenged with cumulative severity.

A Surgical Operation

is always dangerous—do not submit to the surgeon's knife until you have tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It will cure when everything else fails—it has done this in thousands of cases. Hear is one of them: I suffered from bleeding and protruding piles for 20 years. Was treated by different specialists and many remedies, but obtained no relief until I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Two boxes of this salve cured me 18 months ago and I have not had a touch of the piles since. —H. A. Tisdale, Summerton, S. C. For Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Protruding piles no remedy equals DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by J. P. Byron & Son.
